Preface

Statistical Yearbook of Norway 2002 contains relevant statistics on Norway and also main figures for the Nordic countries and other countries selected from international statistics. The international tables have been prepared in collaboration with the central bureaux of statistics in the other Nordic countries. With the help of 670 tables and figures, Statistics Norway presents both the current situation and the historical development in a form most people can use.

The yearbook presents the main features of the official statistics within most social areas. The statistics are based on data that are gathered both through our own statistical surveys and from administrative data, which, in co-operation with other public agencies, have been made available for statistical purposes. Some of the tables have been prepared in their entirety by other public institutions. The statistics follow approved principles, standards and classifications that are also in accordance with international recommendations and guidelines.

In this year's edition the selection of tables is almost the same as in the preceding edition. 26 tables with less actual figures are left out to give way to new figures; i.a. about persons charged for crimes, prices and indices, main figures for hotels and restaurants and transport and communication, and also domestic credit.

The Statistical Yearbook is a useful reference work – an encyclopaedia in figures – at home, in schools and in professional contexts. The list of tables and figures and an index at the back of the book make it easy to find relevant information. The source references in the tables also make the yearbook a good starting point for those who are looking for more detailed statistics.

The yearbook is also published in a separate Norwegian edition. Both editions are available in electronic form on Statistics Norway's home page on the Internet: <http://www.ssb.no/>.

Statistical Yearbook of Norway 2002 has been edited by Ms. Åse Lukerstuen and Ms. Siri Boquist is responsible for the design of the book. In addition, more than a hundred people from within and outside Statistics Norway have made important contributions to this edition of the Statistical Yearbook of Norway.

Geographical survey

The Kingdom of Norway consists of the mainland, the archipelago of Svalbard and the island Jan Mayen.

The mainland consists of continental Norway and every island, islet and rock within the Norwegian baseline.

Svalbard consists of Bjørnøya, Spitsbergen, Nordaustlandet, Barentsøya, Edgeøya, Kong Karls land, Hopen, Prins Karls forland, Kvitøya and every island, islet and rock situated between 74° and 81°N. latitude and between 10° and 35°E. longitude. By an international treaty (the Svalbard treaty), signed on 9 February 1920, Norway's sovereignty over the archipelago was recognised. On 17 July 1925 the archipelago was officially incorporated into the Kingdom of Norway.

Jan Mayen is an island situated in the northern Atlantic. On 8 May 1929 it was placed under Norwegian sovereignty, and became by law of 27 February 1930 a part of the Kingdom of Norway.

The Antarctic islands Bouvet Island, Peter 1's Island and Queen Maud's land (20°W. and 45°E.) on the Antarctic continent are dependencies. They were placed under Norwegian sovereignty by law of 27 February 1930, parliamentary resolution of 23 April 1931 and royal announcement of 14 January 1939, respectively. The dependencies are not part of the Kingdom of Norway.

Forest and agricultural areas

Forests cover about one third of the country. In Southern Norway the timberline lies at approx. 1,000 metres above sea level. The height of the timberline declines towards the west and the north. In many places in Western Norway the timberline reaches no higher than 300 metres above sea level, while in the far north it disappears, because the timberline is at sea level.

Spruce and pine dominate the coniferous forest areas. Birch trees also grow in large stands in mountainous areas between the conifers and high moors and in low-lying areas in Western Norway and in Northern Norway. Valuable deciduous woods are found in areas where the climate is especially favourable. The forestry picture is changing in many places through, for example, the reversion of former grazing areas into forest and reforestation of deciduous woods.

Forestry is carried out in areas with productive forests, which cover approx. 22% of the land area. Agricultural areas lie in the most climatically favourable parts of the lowlands, and account for between 3 and 4% of the land area.

Grain and fruit growing require hotter temperatures while grass and potatoes are less demanding, and are therefore cultivated farther north and at higher elevations than grain.

Settlement

The map shows populated areas and the number of inhabitants in major urban areas as of 1 January 2000. Urban areas with 5 000 or more inhabitants are shown with circles on the map. Oslo, the largest urban area, has 773 498 inhabitants.

An urban area is an agglomeration of houses having at least 200 residents and where the distance between the houses does not as a rule exceed 50 metres, and is limited independent of administrative bounds.

Around three fourths of the population of Norway live along the coast. Other fairly densely populated areas are the plain regions of Eastern Norway and the valleys. Norway is one of the most sparsely populated countries in Europe, with 15 persons per km².

The smallest map shows the percentage of county inhabitants living in urban areas. In 1865, around 20% of Norway's population lived in urban areas. By 2000, the figure had reached 77.3%.

¹The table does not include nature relics (99 geological+about 190 trees) and flora and fauna protections. ²Some areas are located in more than one county. Thus the sum of the number in the counties is higher than the total number. ³including fresh-water lakes. In some cases sea area is included. ⁴Flora and fauna protection areas (biotop protections). ⁵Protected according to the Svalbard law § 4. These areas are not included in the sum figures for protected areas.

¹Mean annual energy production. The figures are not directly comparable because of reference to different time periods for inflow to the reservoirs; from 2000 the period 1970-1999 is used. ²Plans for not operational hydro power are continuously being reconsidered, and consequently the potential hydro power will vary from year to year. ³Includes "License granted" for the years before 1993. ⁴Included in "License granted" or "Under licensing" for the years before 2000.

¹Agglomerations having at least 200 inhabitants and where the distance between the houses as a rule does not exceed 50 metres. Before 1845 cities ("kjøpsteder" and "ladesteder") are considered as densely populated areas, for 1845-1950 also agglomerations outside cities. ²Not included Svalbard and Jan Mayen. ³The population figure is probably about 15 000 too low. ⁴Figures from new preparation of the census in 1980. ⁵Not included Holt-Dypvåg, 4 583 persons. ⁶The population figure is probably about 20 000 too low. ⁷Present population. ⁸Including 15 952 persons with no information on densely/sparsely populated areas in 1980 and 25 005 persons in 1990.

¹Urban settlement: An agglomeration having at least 200 residents and where the distance between houses as a rule does not exceed 50 metres. An urban settlement is delimited independent of administrative boundaries. ²In municipalities where more than 50 per cent of the population live in urban settlements, persons with no registration on urban/rural residence have been considered as inhabitants of the largest urban settlement within the municipality. ³With assignment of codes as in the 1970 census, the population figures of the major urban settlements would be: Oslo 649 031, Bergen 181 919, Trondheim 128 159 and Stavanger 91 129. ⁴New method for delimitation that may influence the comparability with former figures. ⁵From 1 January 1999 continuous urban settlements are merged to one settlement. ⁶The population figure is probably about 4 000 too low.

¹Registered partnerships are included. ²Cohabiting couples with at least one child in common and living on the same address; included in all family statistics from 1 January 1993. ³Up until 1989 the age limit was 20 years for children. Since then the age limit has been 18 years. For 1989 figures are given for both age limits. ⁴Legally separated couples with common children and living on the same address have previously been registered as cohabiting couples. From 1 January 2001 they are excluded from this category.

¹Most of the children born out of wedlock have cohabitant parents. ²Minus sign indicates deficit of births. ³Occasions where the husband was a resident of Norway and according to the residence of the husband. ⁴For the counties: From/to counties and foreign countries.

⁵Increase in population is the difference between population 1 January two following years, and may differ from the sum of excess of births and net migration.

¹According to the boundaries each year. ²According to the boundaries for the counties from 1 January 1972. Oslo and Akershus are here considered as one county. ³Figures for 1951-1957 refer to uncontrolled data from the local population registers (and are therefore less reliable than figures for later years). ⁴Refers to 1957-1960.

¹The average age is average of those actually marrying in the period, thus being influenced by cohort size variations. ²Never married.³Divorced and widowed. ⁴On the condition that a cohort unmarried persons at age 15 years will get married according to the age-specific marriage rates the year observed, and that deaths do not occur. The percentage is not influenced by cohort size variations. In 1996 a new model for calculating per cent unmarried at age 50 was put into use. Using the model, new figures for 1991-1995 have been calculated. The implication of the adjustment is that the percentage is not directly comparable to those of preceding years. ⁵Corrected figure.Source: Marriages and registered partnerships, Statistics Norway. ¹The studies at the universities and colleges are based on terms. ²The pupils of upper secondary schools consist of pupils under the Upper Secondary Education Act, pupils of folk high schools, participants of labour market courses and pupils of other upper secondary education.

³The number of colleges is from 1994/95 lower than recent years because most of the colleges have been reorganized into fewer units, and the single divisions of NKI colleges and Norwegian School of Management are not counted as separate colleges. ⁴Norwegian College of Fishery Science is included in the University of Tromsø. ⁵Until 1996 the University of Trondheim was divided in College of Arts and Science, The Norwegian Institute of Technology and Faculty of Medicine. All the institutions were from 1 January 1996 combined to an administrative unit, the Norwegian University of Science and Technology.

¹The term personal taxpayer means an individual that has assessed taxes >0 and/or tax advances >0. Tax advances are defined as the sum of settled advanced tax deduction, settled advanced tax and payed additional advance tax. Married couples with joint-taxation are not counted as one personal taxpayer. This definition differs from earlier years' definition of personal taxpayers, and are therefore not comparable. Taxpayers from Svalbard are included. ²Ordinary income after special deductions eligible for taxation.

¹The term personal taxpayer means an individual that has assessed taxes>0 and/or tax advances>0 and/or tax relieves>0. Tax advances are defined as the sum of settled advanced tax deduction, settled advanced tax and payed additional advance tax. Married couples with joint-taxation are not counted as one personal taxpayer. This definition differs from earlier years' definition of personal taxpayers, and are therefore not comparable. Taxpayers from Svalbard are included. ²Ordinary income after special deductions eligible for taxation. ³Net wealth eligible for taxation.

⁴Assessed taxes also include additional tax, delay duty and surcharge for additional payment of pensions.

¹Starting in 1970, 16 years and over. ²For 1980, persons stating to have worked at least 1 000 hours per year are considered economically active. There is good correlation between working at least 1 000 hours per year and having a main occupation as the main source of livelihood, a term used in earlier censuses. For 1990, the figures are deducted from the responses to the question on number of months in full-time or part-time work. The figures on economically active are therefore lower than the ones presently used.

¹The statistics cover general trade. Imports directly to the Norwegian continental shelf not cleared by customs are excluded. The exports include crude oil shipped directly from the Norwegian continental shelf and natural gas from the Norwegian continental shelf. ²Excluding aircraft, ships and floating structures. ³Refunds of duty to the ship building industry are not deducted. In 1990-1991 these amounted to 15 and 6 million kroner. In 1992-2000 there was no refund of duty.

¹The statistics record the number of bounties paid for predators killed. After the species were protected (cf. note 5), all registered mortality is recorded. ²The period from 1866-1870 records the average per year. No data for eagles. ³The decrease for eagles is due to better control through the payment of bounties. ⁴For 1933-1940 there were an additional 40 wolves and 56 eagles felled. After 1961 bears felled without bounty are also included. ⁵Eagles were protected starting in 1969, wolves starting in 1972 and bears starting in 1974. Wolverines starting in South of Norway in 1975 and in the whole of Norway from 1981, until license hunting was introduced in 1993. Lynx was protected in Southern Norway from 1992, until quota hunting was introduced in 1994.

¹One driving licence may include several classes. ²Trailers with total weight of 750 kg or more. ³The large increase in the figures for some of the driving licence classes, is due to what previously was called the stamp arrangement. That means that many driving licence owners had the privilege to drive light motor cycle, motor vehicle up to 7 500 kg and mini buses, and this right was only indicated by a stamp on the driving licence (stamp arrangement). It was, however, not marked by any letter combination on the driving licence (or in the driving license register). Previously, the statistics did not comprise those who had these rights (the stamp). When the driving licence register was re-adjusted in 1998, the stamp arrangement was unrolled.

¹Refers to transfers comprising transfer of title to land and transfers of building sections registered as individual property. Dwelling property comprises detached houses, semi-detached houses, row-houses, multi-dwelling houses etc. The share of different dwelling types will vary over time. Because of this, figures do not describe the price trend for a specific type of dwelling. A few transfers may include more than one dwelling unit. Dwelling properties without purchase price reported are not included.

¹Capital cities are listed first, then, alphabetically, some of the largest cities in the country. Cities that don't have suburbs are usually listed with the population in the administrative areas. The population figures for a large number of cities in less developed countries are uncertain.²De jure population.³Includes Frederiksberg and Gentofte.⁴The capital city region including Espoo, Kauniainen and Vantaa.⁵The administrative units may cover more than city areas.⁶Includes Anderlecht and Schaerbeek.⁷Excluding alien military forces.⁸Former Sverdlovsk.⁹County districts.¹⁰Pretoria is the administrative unit, Cape Town is the legislative capital city.¹¹Includes New Delhi.¹²The "Standard metropolitan statistical area" is used for cities with suburbs.¹³Including East-Jerusalem.¹⁴Excluding countryside population. The administrative areas of Chinese cities usually include large countryside areas. The majority of the population may be living in such areas.¹⁵The Greek part.¹⁶The Turkish part.¹⁷Statistical district.

Topics 1995

The topic classification (revised 1995) makes it easier to locate relevant statistics within a subject of interest. The chapters of this yearbook are consistent with the highest level of the classification, while the tables are grouped at lower levels as well.

Statistics Norway has produced a publication to guide the users of the statistics. An English summary of the publication is available on Statistics Norway's home page on Internet: <http://www.ssb.no>.
